

DIZZINESS: A Multidisciplinary Approach

Queen Square Dizzy Course Programme 2019

Date: Tuesday 11th – Friday 14th June 2017

Venue: 33 Queen Square lecture theatre, Queen Square, London, WC1N 3BG

Day One

Tuesday 11th June

8.30am Registration / Coffee / Tea

Morning session – Evaluation and diagnosis of the dizzy patient

9.00am Welcome and opening remarks – Prof Doris-Eva Bamiou

9.15am Anatomy and physiology of the vestibular system in clinical context – Prof Doris-Eva Bamiou

9.45am Overview of the diagnostic approach for dizziness and imbalance – Prof Linda Luxon

10.30am Clinical examination of the patient with vertigo and imbalance – Dr Raj Nandi

11.00am Coffee / Tea break

11.20am The vestibular test battery and how to use it – Dr Charlotte Agrup

11.45am Is there a role for surgery in the patient with dizziness – Prof Shakeel Saeed

12.30pm Lunch

Afternoon session – Common Vestibular Disorders: presentation and management

1.30pm Vestibular neuritis - Dr Raj Nandi

2.00pm BPPV – Prof Doris-Eva Bamiou

2.30pm Meniere's disease – Dr Charlotte Agrup

3.00pm Coffee / Tea break

3.20pm Vestibular Migraine – Dr Louisa Murdin

3.40pm Central vertigo – Dr Diego Kaski

4.10pm Acute dizziness – Prof Adolfo Bronstein

5.00pm Day close

Day Two

Wednesday 12th June

8.30am Registration / Coffee / Tea

Morning session – The vestibular test battery

9.00am vHIT – Prof Michael Halmagyi

9.45am ENG/VNG – a theoretical and practical perspective of different measurement techniques
Prof Herman Kingma

10.30am Coffee / Tea break

10.50am VEMPs – Prof Michael Halmagyi

11.30am Oculomotor function testing – Prof Herman Kingma

12.00 pm BPPV beyond the vestibular canal and the use of repositioning chairs – Prof Måns Magnusson

12.30pm Lunch

Afternoon session

1.30pm Practical hands on workshop at The Royal National Throat Nose and Ear Hospital

5.00pm Day close

DIZZINESS: A Multidisciplinary Approach

Day Three

Thursday 13th June 2017

8.30am Registration / Coffee / Tea

Morning session – Disorders in different populations and vestibular rehabilitation

9am Dizziness in the paediatric population – Dr Waheeda Pagarkar

9.45am Dizziness in the elderly – What service do they need? – Dr Joanna Lawson

10.30am Coffee / Tea break

10.50am Overview of psychiatric disorders and the vestibular patient – Prof Jeffrey Staab

11.30am Vestibular physiotherapy: rationale, assessment and the different components – Dr Marousa Pavlou

12.10am Vestibular physiotherapy: evidence and current guidelines – Ms Amanda Male

12.30pm Lunch

Afternoon session – Vestibular rehabilitation and Case studies: common, unusual, challenging

1.30pm Advanced rehabilitation of the patient with dizziness/imbalance: “high tech” approaches, and translation into clinical practice- Prof Sue Whitney

2.15pm Case studies

3.15pm Coffee break

3.45pm Case studies

5.00pm Day close

Day Four

Friday 14th June

8.30am Registration / Coffee / Tea

Morning session – Innovation research and clinical implications

9.00am Vestibular rehabilitation: is there a need for dual tasking training? - Dr Marousa Pavlou

9.45am Vestibular rehabilitation after traumatic brain injury – recent advances - Prof Sue Whitney

10.30am Coffee / Tea

11.00am HOLOBALANCE: HOLOGrams for personalised virtual coaching and motivation in an ageing population with BALANCE disorders - Prof Doris-Eva Bamiou

11.45am Persistent postural-perceptual dizziness (PPPD) – imaging studies - Prof Jeffrey Staab

12.30pm Lunch

Afternoon session

1.30pm New insights in MD/Intratympanic treatments - Prof Måns Magnusson

2.15pm Vestibular prostheses - Prof Herman Kingma

3.00pm Coffee / Tea

3.30pm Stroke affecting the vestibular pathway and the vHIt test - Prof Michael Halmagyi

4.15pm Questions and discussion

4.30pm Meeting close